

Please do not approve a policy that allows for any additional media consolidation. I do not believe that the existence of the Internet is an excuse to allow greater conglomeration of power within the newspaper and broadcast industries. The recent exposé of the dramatic extent to which FCC staff travel was paid for by the companies wishing for the new rules will make any vote you take in favor of further consolidation to have the taint of corruption. You and the American public don't want that.